The Donor Bill of Rights

To ensure that our donors and prospective donors can have full confidence in the TSG Foundation, we declare that our donors have these rights:

1. To be informed of the organization's mission, of the way the organization intends to use donated resources, and of its capacity to use donations effectively for their intended purposes.
2. To be informed of the identity of those serving on the organization's governing board, and to expect the board to exercise prudent judgment in its stewardship responsibilities.
3. To have access to the organization's most recent financial statements.
4. To be assured their gifts will be used for the purposes for which they were given.
5. To receive appropriate acknowledgement and recognition as they deem appropriate, or remain anonymous.
6. To be assured that information about their donation is handled with respect and with confidentiality to the extent provided by law.
7. To be assured that the names and other information about donors will not be shared by any organization, person, or Affiliate.
8. To expect that all relationships with individuals representing organizations of interest to the donor will be professional in nature.
9. To be informed of whether those seeking donations are volunteers, employees of the organization.
10. To feel free to ask questions when making a donation and to receive prompt, truthful and forthright answers.
