Karma and the Solar Angel

Dear Friends: In this issue of Outreach we present for your reading pleasure an excerpt about karma and the role of the Solar Angel.

The karma of a person and the plan of the Solar Angel do not conflict because the Solar Angel bases Its plans on the karmic records of the person and the potentials that he demonstrates. But it so happens that due to various influences, a person may do unexpected things that create conflict with the plan of the Solar Angel, and he may fail to fulfill the plan.

The plan of the Solar Angel is to help you overcome past vices and wickedness and help you develop your potentials. It is always the plan of the Solar Angel to prepare you in such a way that you take part consciously in the Divine Plan. Let us remember that the Solar Angel is a member of the Hierarchy and cooperates with the Hierarchical Plan.

When disciples are accepted, they are mostly under the control of the Hierarchy, which acts as the collective Solar Angel for humanity.

The Hierarchy may prepare a disciple to perform sacrificial deeds and die. But such a disciple is always conscious, whether he is in or out of body.

After he dies, he does not succumb to the lower hells, as do suicides, but proceeds to higher planes with greater enlightenment.

Sometimes a disciple sacrifices all his time and energy with self-forgetfulness to help others, but in so doing he does not slow down his own spiritual progress. When he dies, special Teachers take care of him, teach him, and help him assimilate in just a few years all that he would have learned and assimilated in the life span that he sacrificed for humanity. Total righteousness exists in the Higher Worlds, and you are paid back for a cup of water given to a thirsty soul.

Sometimes fanatics appear to be like heroes or disciples. The difference is that they are following the direction of obsessors or possessors or following the dictates of their glamors and illusions. Most fanatics do not have continuity of consciousness.

The Hierarchy presents the Plan to disciples and leaves them free to work with the Plan. The Hierarchy even leaves them free to choose how they will exercise their ingenuity.

Those entities which are totally dedicated to genocide, terrorism, and destruction are those people whose Solar Angels have left them. Such people can be very vicious and bestial. In human history there is evidence of people obsessed with such entities. These are people who butchered others and tried to destroy whole cultures or civilizations.

There are two kinds of people who do not have Solar Angels:

1. Those who in previous manvantaras achieved individualization by the power of the Divine Spark within them
2. Those who were endowed with Solar Angels on this globe but lost them

Some people who do not have Solar Angels came to this planet from space to continue their education. They demonstrate a strong mentality with great intellectual powers. They are materialists who use separatism and factions. They are scattered throughout all nations and work with selfishness and separatism. They create the crises necessary to awaken the thinking of average people. They do not belong to a single religion or nation, but are from all nationalities. They are recognized by their selfishness, cunning intellect, power of manipulation, materialism, and totalitarian attitudes. Sometimes they are born into families among those who have Solar Angels.

Those who lost their Solar Angels are primarily destructive people. If a chance were given to them, they would burn the world and enjoy its destruction. Fortunately, these people are rare. A contemporary example is Hitler and his seven evil co-workers. Hitler was not possessed by a disembodied human being but by a member of the Dark Lodge.

You read in mythology and legend about people who denounce their souls and make a pact with Satan. There is some truth in this. When a human being becomes totally inhuman and loses his Solar Angel, he becomes an agent of the dark forces and uses his intellect, knowledge, and resources to bring destruction to Earth.

Those people who evolved without Solar Angels and eventually individualized or developed "I" consciousness or ego consciousness, were inhabitants of other or previous solar systems. Their Spark very slowly unfolds itself with the help of great Masters Who act as Solar Angels for a large mass of people. Through Their methods, the focus of consciousness of people was eventually drawn into the lower mental plane where "I" consciousness developed, and they realized that they were separate, thinking human beings.

To undergo further evolution, these people came to Earth to develop their love nature. If they fail to overcome their separatism and materialism by cultivating inclusiveness and spirituality, they will be counted as failures in the next manvantara. Who knows what destiny awaits them.

Sometimes people without Souls develop their love nature through the experience of incessant pain, suffering, isolation, revolution, war, and destruction — unless they take deliberate action to develop their heart nature and compassion.

Those who developed without Solar Angels and are now living on Earth are those who attach fanatically to teachers, ministers, or leaders sometimes with total blindness. The reason for this is that they use their teachers and leaders as "solar angels" of sorts. These people are usually fanatical devotees. Of course, one can highly respect his teacher, follow the wisdom imparted by him, and still have a Solar Angel. The differences between these two kinds of devotees are instructive:

- One is exclusive; the other is inclusive.
- One separates; the other synthesizes.
- One obeys blindly; the other obeys consciously and with his free will.
- One destroys for the sake of his beliefs; the other tries to understand the beliefs of others and to find beauty in them.
- One is materialistic and totalitarian; the other is idealistic, practical, and purely democratic.
- One collects and stores; the other distributes and shares

I was once asked what happens when a man without a Solar Angel marries a woman who has a Solar Angel; do their children have Solar Angels or not? The answer is that any soul who has a Solar Angel is born with It. The soul who does not have a Solar Angel is born without one. If two people who do not have Solar Angels marry one another, they tend to attract children without Solar Angels. If by chance they have a child who has a Solar Angel, their life will not be easy with that child. The child will eventually leave them, after making numerous attempts to open their heart qualities and inclusiveness. It is also possible for two people who have Solar Angels to have a child who does not have one. These parents will have similar problems; the child will eventually leave them to join those who do not have Solar Angels.

People without Solar Angels have a very strong tendency and urge to be together for protection. They go into business together and share various interests. It is very strange how people without Solar Angels stick to each other better than those who have Solar Angels. Perhaps this is because the Solar Angel works to create synthesis and fusion, rather than grouping.

Fortunately, people without Solar Angels are not a single nation; they are in all nations, in all churches, in all organizations - pursuing the same goals: materialism, totalitarianism, and separatism.

It is important to remember that all those who strive can reach perfection. Those who do not have Solar Angels can achieve the Fourth Initiation and beyond, just as people who have Solar Angels can. It is also possible for a person who has a Solar Angel to fail to reach the Fourth Initiation, or Arhathood. The path toward perfection is open to all.

People without Solar Angels must unfold their heart and cultivate compassion, inclusiveness, and intuition. People with Solar Angels must cultivate reasoning, logic, practicality, and other mental qualities, and strive toward perfection.

Both types of people eventually meet on the Intuitional Plane as brothers. Both of them at this stage do not have Solar Angels, and both of them are in the Light Supernal.

People who do not have Solar Angels think that they are the Solar Angel for the personality, which is comprised of billions of lives divided into the mental, astral, etheric, and physical planes. These billions of lives must proceed on the path of their evolution through the light shed upon them by the human soul himself.

A person who does not have a Solar Angel has a hard time understanding the subjective dialogue which goes on between a human soul and his Solar Angel. Such people have a different psychology and do not experience the intervention of a Solar Angel.

The intervention of the Solar Angel is very subtle. It is not direct or imposed but, because of the very presence of the Solar Angel, with all Its glory, beauty, and wisdom, the person, no matter what he does, at some level measures himself by the standards of the Solar Angel and feels happy or guilty. He feels guilty if he does not meet the standards of the Solar Angel. He feels happy when he cooperates with the standards of his Solar Angel. There is always a dialogue or inner connection between the two poles.

In the case of those who do not have a Solar Angel, they do right or wrong without having an inner reaction or response. Those who do not have a Solar Angel have an orphan psychology. They feel as if there is no one to whom they belong. They do not experience an inner pressure to which they complain or rejoice. They create substitutes. Their wives or husbands carry a heavy load of their complaints and are forced to rejoice with them in the smallest success they have. And if they do not find any substitute, they sink into deep depression.

If they are of average consciousness, they always need someone to tell them what to do. They need constant encouragement to move forward. If they are advanced, they are totally indifferent to praise or rebuke. This is why they can donate ten million dollars without the joy of giving, or commit a serious crime and feel as if nothing has happened. You cannot scold these people. No matter how deeply you try to insult them, they do not feel the slightest impression on their skin. All of this does not mean that they are bad people, merely that they are different from those who have Solar Angels.

People without Solar Angels often act like little children; dependency is very high in them. This is why those who do not have Solar Angels often rule, manipulate, and exploit those who do. In a sense, an average person who does not have a Solar Angel is more immature than an average person who does. They have a cunning mind, and find ways to cheat those who have Solar Angels, manipulate them, and by so doing, help awaken them to progress.

T.S.G. NEWS

Leaves From My Spiritual Journey:

Outreach has a new column where students of TSU can share their spiritual journey. We are happy to present this student-inspired column and share with you the inspirations and visions of disciples from all over the world. Many of our students write absolutely beautiful essays in their meditation lessons and course work. Many students also write essays of deep insight after attending a seminar or retreat. These writings carry the energy of joy and gratitude and are inspiring to read and share. Permission is always requested from the author and names are not used unless approved by the student. If you are a student of The Torkom Saraydarian University and would like to submit leaves from your spiritual journey, please send your writing to our USA office. All submissions must be word-processed and emailed to us. The decision to publish writings is the responsibility of our editorial staff.

Book Publishing:

We are very happy to report the near completion of a second volume of the book The Solar Angel. This compilation is from both published and unpublished writings. We are in the final stages of preparation of the manuscript and are planning a release date of October-November 2004. We will keep all of you apprised of the release date.

Archiving News:

We have been working feverishly in May, June, and July to organize the unpublished manuscripts. It is a great joy to give a progress report. Before we started in May, we had 67 unpublished manuscripts. We had hard copies of all the writings, but not matching electronic files. Meg Sample, Ani Saraydarian, and Gita Saraydarian worked full time to consolidate, match, and organize all the files. As we go to press with this issue of Outreach, we are happy to report that we now have consolidated to a total of 46 unpublished manuscripts. Almost all the printed files have been matched with the electronic counterparts. Where no electronic files could be found, we scanned entire chapters and even books. This is the first phase of the completion of Torkom's book legacy. The next phase will consist of reading and editing each manuscript several times. Then it is typeset and once again subjected to several readings, technical checking, and indexing. The process of publishing is a very time consuming, labor-intensive work. We love every moment of this birth process and eagerly look forward for each book to be born.

In the meantime, Meg Sample has been transferring the lecture tapes onto CD's. That process includes cleaning up the background noise and improving the sound of each lecture. We now have over 150 CD's of the lectures and plan to place every cassette on a CD. This will ensure that all of you can enjoy these lectures now and so will future generations. Our next project will focus on how to transfer every VHS video onto a DVD that is readable in any part of the world. We are doing some research regarding equipment and have found that prices of hardware and software are much more affordable. These two projects are ongoing and we will keep you apprised of our progress. We can copy any lecture on CD at $10.00 each. DVD's of the lectures are not yet available but will in the near future.

Contributions are needed:

We look forward to your generous contributions to help us complete the publishing of Torkom's books. We will need to raise $500,000 to publish the yet unpublished books. With your continuous contributions, we can complete this task in the next ten years. You can contribute to the general Book Fund or to one particular book. These are magnificent books and we are sure you will love the Teaching contained in each of them. Presently we are working on the following manuscripts: The Solar Angel, Volume 2; The Wisdom of the Zodiac in three volumes; Happiness, Joy, and Bliss; and a Commentary on the Secret Doctrine.

Your contributions to any part of our work are welcome and deeply appreciated.

Leaves From My Spiritual Journey

My Wesak Journal

By

Gladys Moran

This was my first Wesak Seminar. I joined TSG last year and was willing to participate in this event due to the kind of energy released during the Full Moon of May and the fact that Gita was conducting it. I know from direct experience in Lima how good she is on giving transforming seminars.

Having this in mind, I booked my ticket to Arizona via New York from Lima. After spending some days in New York, I went to take my flight to Arizona. I was supposed to arrive around 8.30 PM and had agreed to have Starling pick me up. His flight was to arrive an hour earlier and we planned to go to the Retreat Center together.

However, the flight was delayed almost 3 hours! I telephoned Gita and told her, left messages on Starling's telephone, and hoped for the best. By the time I finally arrived I was completely sure that nobody was going to be there. But Starling, as a true gentleman, was there ready to pick me up and take us to the retreat. It was well past 11 PM, 2:30 AM Eastern Time for me, when we finally left the airport. As we drove North on the Freeway, we discovered that part of the Freeway was closed due to construction. We arrived at the Retreat Center after 1:00 AM and I am sorry to say that I awakened everybody as I entered the suite and tried to settle down for some sleep. The Seminar was going to start the same morning at 10 AM.

I had visited TSG last year in the fall and had the opportunity to meet some of the members.

It was nice to see familiar faces once again like Tonia, Steve, Mike and some others and meet the most wonderful group of people I've met, full of goodwill and ready to join the seminar.

Everything was well organized by Gita and the volunteers who were there ready to help. After breakfast, we gathered together at the meeting center to open the ceremony with a lovely candlelight service followed by the first lecture about "What is an Avatar." Gita then raised a question about which one of us felt like an Avatar, a Messenger of God, someone full of spiritual will, love and enlightenment that transforms his environment. Nobody raised his or her hand, including me. Gita then said that she was expecting that by the end of the Seminar every one of us would feel like an Avatar ready to do his or her part of the work for Humanity.

Gita, Vivienne Pierce, Starling Hunter, and Tonia Schwartz led the wonderful lectures. Each lecture was followed by meditations and visualizations led by John Dumigan. I learned from all of them and we were being introduced into what an Avatar is and how to become one.

I was lucky to share the suite with John and Catriona, both from the UK. They led a morning meditation group at the suite. Every morning we gathered together with Vivienne, Stratton, Starling, Lasse and Heather to meditate and pray. Those sessions were enlightening and set the proper environment to start the Seminar sessions.

The afternoons were dedicated to learning the sacred dances and songs that were going to be performed during the full moon celebration on Tuesday and to prepare our group discussion about Avatars from Torkom's book.

We started from the very basics, learning our dances and songs, lead by Heather and Gita. After some time together, we all felt like one. I felt as if I had been with that group for ages, due to the goodwill and love emanating from them. The synergy and empathy were strong.

The fourth and last day, the Wesak Day, we started with a "Sunrise Worship" led by Gita, followed by the group discussion. Then we got ready to perform our Group Sacred Dances and Songs. That was a very powerful moment where we charged where we were with all the energy that we had evoked with the sacred dances and songs. We performed the basic symbols like the cross, triangle and circle inside a circle that evoked the three basic rays and the basic Monads. That magical moment was sealed by the ASATOMA prayer sung by all of us holding each other in a circle, as one.

We were then ready for our last lecture followed by the Wesak meditation, visualization, and the Great Invocation, invoked at the exact time of the Full Moon in Taurus. We completed the ritual by sending blessings to the world as we ended our prayers.

We had communion, and after that sacred moment, Gita asked about who felt like an Avatar and this time everybody raised his hand, totally convinced that we are one and ready to continue our never ending work to the Hierarchy.

I truly believe that this Seminar was a transforming one; it was for me and for everyone committed to build that "golden bridge" in order to receive and pass the powerful energy of the Full Moon of May, the energy of "spiritual will, love and enlightenment."

After I came back to Lima I joined a meditation group with some friends and I take turns to guide meditations and visualizations using Torkom's teachings. I also gather a group of persons who are attending the first Spanish language meditation course at TSU. I am doing my part, however small, to help spread the Teachings. We now have two complete courses in Spanish and plan to translate more and have them available.

I do feel transformed by this experience and really thankful for the opportunity to be there, sharing this time with the most wonderful group of people, true Avatars on the path of self-evolution.

Thanks to Gita, Steve, Tonia, Starling, John, Catriona, Vivienne, Stratton, Heather, Lasse and many others that helped me and all the team to realize the kind of Avatars that we are.
